

FROM ARMSTRONG

The 1914-15 school term at Armstrong opened Monday, July 15, for a summer term of two months with A. T. Dickerson in charge. Up to Wednesday the total enrollment had reached forty students. The system of military training was inaugurated the first day and two drill squads were organized. One squad of ten were assigned to each squad. Sgt. A. E. Dickerson of the 6th and Red girls, Elbert Paxon sergeant and Ole Woodie corporal of squad A, while Babe Mitchell, sergeant and Verona Haverkamp of squad B, were sergeants.

George McDougal and wife were in Durant Saturday representing the local auxiliary of the Red Cross at a special meeting of the county at Durant.

George McDougal and wife were in Durant Saturday representing the local auxiliary of the Red Cross at a special meeting of the county at Durant.

Verona Haverkamp returned Saturday after a few weeks visit at Kenefick as a guest of a girl friend Nellie Englehart.

Ruby Mitchell visited with friends in Durant a greater part of last week, the first part of the week being spent with Misses Naomi and Edith Hardin and the week end was spent at the home of C. W. Hallmark.

The following boys who volunteered in the U. S. Boy's Working Reserve have received their medals: Otis Morehead, No. 72,848; Edgar O. Kizer, No. 72,841; Fox Kizer, No. 72,826; Willie D. Mitchell, No. 72,802; C. E. Dodson, No. 72,814; B. C. Dodson, No. 72,871; Stimule Head, No. 72,870; Thomas Head, No. 72,829.

Messrs. Garrett and Callaway went to Durant in the interest of Red Cross affairs.

On Wednesday night a traveling motion picture show gave an entertainment in the Armstrong school house to a fair sized crowd.

The annual school election for District 26 was held at the Armstrong school Tuesday, July 9. A new board member was elected, and an estimate for the ensuing year was made out.

The ladies of the Armstrong Red Cross auxiliary contemplates giving a benefit in the way of an ice cream social Tuesday evening, July 23, the same to be scheduled to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, who occupy the residence at the State fish hatchery.

FROM BENNINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin of Mineral Wells, Texas, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. S. Dawson.

Mrs. John Hurley is in Texas visiting relatives and friends.

H. M. West and family have returned from a week's visit with Mr. West's mother and other relatives at Cooper, Texas.

Miss Mattie Russell spent the night Tuesday with her sister, Miss Frances Russell, of Durant.

Mrs. Jim Lightfoot of McMinn, Okla., is visiting friends in Bennington. They left here three years ago for New Mexico, and after two years stay there came back to good old Oklahoma. Their son, Arnold, has been in France since the first of the year.

Ross Plummer was a Hugo visitor Monday.

Mrs. H. A. Brackett and children visited Mr. Harrison's family at Bantz over Sunday.

J. O. Walker and family left Monday to make their home in Hender and country, Texas.

The shower on last week did a great deal of good, but more is badly needed.

Agnes Maxine Walter is very ill at this writing. Her children are at her bedside.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Atchway were Durant visitors Sunday.

FROM KENEFICK

O. W. Smith was a visitor to Durant Monday.

Scott Sessions and family are spending a week with friends and relatives at Rice, Texas, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Briggs of Durant was visiting in Kenefick Saturday.

Mrs. Huddleston of Coleman was visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Gravitt, Monday.

How Watkins of Kenefick was visiting in Durant Sunday.

Mrs. O. W. Smith and her mother, Mrs. Martin, are spending the week in Caddo with Mr. Smith's mother, Mrs. Terry.

Mrs. A. L. Hanna and little Arthur and little daughter, Vera, who have been visiting in Kansas and Missouri for the past two months, arrived home Tuesday.

Prof. Ray, who is to be principal of the Kenefick school for the next year, was visiting patrons here Tuesday.

Miss Winnie Lewis is spending the week with her brother Curtis Lewis. Lonnie Glenn was on our streets last week shaking hands with our citizens.

Dr. Dickey made a trip to Coleman Monday.

Mrs. Jim Bagwell was shopping in Durant Saturday.

C. C. Jennings has his little sister visiting him this week.

Mrs. John Davis spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Colbert, who lives out across Blue.

Raymond Harrison came home last Monday, after a few days visit with his brother at Hugo.

Messrs. Hadley Fox and Hat Watkins went to Oklahoma City Saturday and returned home Monday.

J. Lee Cunningham of Durant was a business caller here Tuesday.

B. F. Pinson of Caddo was in town Wednesday.

FROM CALERA

Mrs. M. S. Keller and her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Copper, returned from their visit to Sulphur, Texas, Saturday.

Mrs. A. E. Griggs and children of Nevada, Texas, are visiting with Mrs. W. E. Turley and many friends in Calera.

Mrs. Hedy Foster and her two daughters, of Calera, are spending the week with relatives and friends. Mrs. Ova Smith of Hugo is visiting with them in Calera this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Van Meter and Mrs. Nellie were called to Hugo to see their brother, Percy, for the third time.

E. W. Whitson and her family arrived in Calera Monday to be with her brother, Alton Wood, who is on his way to New York on a business trip.

The Calera high school opened its Monday morning with a large attendance for the first of the year.

Prof. R. D. Bean and family will move to Platt Saturday, where he will take charge of the Platt school Monday morning. We regret very much to lose Mr. Bean.

Mrs. Tinnie England and Mrs. Ola Beck were visitors in Calera last Monday.

The two little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Yarbrough of Ed, Okla., are spending a few weeks with their relatives, W. E. Turley and Mrs. Minnie Watkins.

Rev. J. J. Hickerson is holding a meeting at the Second Baptist church this week. Rev. Pierce will join him the latter part of the week.

Miss Jewell Goza was among the thirty-three boys and girls who completed their work at the summer normal at Durant Wednesday.

Ernest Wilson and Walter Bowles of Colbert were business visitors in Calera Wednesday.

R. H. Ansley is home again this week.

C. M. Wood is now president of the First State Bank, and E. W. Carter is cashier of the same bank here.

Mrs. Clyde Cooper left Wednesday for her home at Cane.

Messrs. J. W. Duncan and J. A. Mapp have just finished erecting a silo on the J. B. Colbert place.

Tom Fleming will take charge of the house just vacated by R. D. Bean.

G. G. Hill will move to Durant in a short time, where they expect to make their home for some time.

FROM COLBERT

Boots Gladden was accidentally shot through one of his feet last Wednesday in E. R. Wilson's store.

Prof. G. P. Bean of Calera made a business trip to Colbert Wednesday.

Mrs. Oscar Smith of Cumberland, Maryland, is here for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Henry Coleman.

Mrs. Parkey has been real sick for the past few days.

There is quite a bit of sickness in this country the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Roles, Opal Gladden, Jim Morgan, and Play Stephens motored to Denison Sunday night.

The father and mother of Mr. O. L. Davidson are here visiting with her this week.

Grandpa Gooding, who has been sick for quite a long time, died Friday about noon and was buried in the Colbert cemetery Saturday evening. A very large crowd attended the funeral, as he was widely known and had many friends.

Mrs. Henry Wiggins, and Lillie, Robert, and Arthur Hamman drove to Denison last Saturday.

Mrs. Beeler and family of Chickasha are here visiting her mother, Grandma Collins.

Miss Kate Gladden is spending the week with Miss Maude Collins.

Miss Susie Gladden, Lloyd, Fara, Miss Flax, Stephens, and Herman Cooper were in Durant Saturday evening.

Miss Gladys Rankin of Durant has been here visiting Mrs. E. B. Wilson.

Mrs. J. H. Thomas, Miss Iva and Viola Prickett are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Goodby.

Miss Emma Crutcher, who is attending business college in Sherman, is here visiting friends this week.

Miss Rachel Sims was shopping in Denison last Saturday.

Henry Gladden, who has been absent for his health, is home again.

There was a party at the home of E. W. Davidson, who lives south of here, Saturday night.

FROM WADE

The health of the community is very good at present.

Married Sunday night, Mr. Bill Portman and Miss Mary Huddleston.

Bro. Howell closed a twelve day meeting Sunday night with great success. There were seven baptisms Sunday evening. Several were reclaimed.

Bro. Hivley and Bro. Dilbeck will start their meeting the fourth Sunday in this month.

Last Monday, after the close of the meeting, Bro. Howell and his family and his Baptist and Methodist friends all enjoyed a fish fry on Red river.

Charlie Byrn and wife took dinner at Granville Wilkins Sunday.

Granville Jeffers and family spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Buford.

Mrs. Jim Williamson was called to the bedside of her mother last Saturday, in Bowie county, Texas.

Our crops are looking fine, but are badly in need of rain.

A sister-in-law of George and Mark Whitworth and her little son, from Arkansas, are visiting them.

George Alexander and family are visiting at Pauls Valley.

Last week Treasurer Shike Blakeley of the local Red Cross base ball league handed the local Red Cross Chapter a check for $225.00, the net proceeds of the gate receipts for the games to date. It is expected that the remainder of the present schedule and the second half of the season will yield at least as much more.

FROM YARNABY

Dave Wright, Lacey Grimes, and Chas. Abbott of Durant were in town Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lemon of Achille were Yarnaby visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Tatum were visiting Mrs. J. T. Hightower Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cain were in Durant on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Qualis were in Durant Saturday.

Mrs. Rachel Whittemore, a lady of Kemp, spent a few days with G. W. Wells.

Fay Outback of Camp Jackson is here shaking hands with school-boys. Fay has made good, is a second lieutenant, and is on his way to Fort Sill.

Misses Ruth Bend and Miss Helen Jones entertained their Sunday school class with a picnic Saturday. They report having had a very nice time.

Dr. Griffiths of Kemp was in Yarnaby Monday.

Quite a few attended services at the Potts school house Sunday night.

Mrs. Tocco Morgan of Kemp is visiting at C. Y. and J. A. Morgan's this week.

Alfred Connelly and family were in town Monday evening.

Ross Harris and family have been up in the Washita for a few days.

Jack Turner was in Yarnaby Monday.

Joe Cassey of Achille was here Monday.

Mike Wells went to Denison last Monday.

Grandma Wilson is on the sick list this week.

Luke Smithson and wife and niece Lucy McKinnis of Allison were visiting at J. A. Morgan's Saturday evening.

Bailey Flemings of Kemp was in town Monday in the interest of the telephone company.

FROM UTICA

The pound super given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Lewis Saturday night was a success in every particular.

Mrs. Jusse Stenson and little son, from Bonham, are spending a few days here with her friend, Mrs. May Sea.

T. M. Perry and family spent Sunday with the family of R. L. Hibburn.

Miss Gladys Groerman of Denison is visiting her cousin, Miss Mabel Carroll, who lives southeast of town.

Miss Hattie Churchman, Mrs. Addie McCallib, Clara Askin, and Bill Watson, motored to Durant Saturday afternoon.

Miss Dottie Childress spent Saturday night with her friend Daisy McCandless.

Miss Laura Fisher is spending the week in Durant with her friend Miss Lola Carpenter.

Misses Ruthie and Lizzie Martin spent Saturday night and Sunday here with their aunt, Mrs. L. J. Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Gibbs were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Hobbs Sunday.

Miss Ina Honts and some friends from Calera motored over Sunday afternoon and visited a while with friends.

Dr. D. C. McCallib went to All on Wednesday.

W. J. O'Donley and family spent Sunday with relatives at Yuba.

Jim O'Donley is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. H. G. Vanzandt has been real sick for the past few days, but is able to be up now we are glad to report.

Miss Hattie Churchman visited relatives in Durant Saturday night and Sunday.

Bill Childers, wife and children spent Saturday night and Sunday with Sam McGowan and family.

J. W. Pruitt and family from Amarillo, Texas, are here visiting friends and relatives. It seems like old times to have them with us again.

Mrs. Mat Carr and little daughter from Blanco are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Hester Pruitt was the guest of her friends, Daisy McCandless on Tuesday night.

C. E. Thornby from near Matoy is here this week attending to his business affairs.

Willie McGowan has purchased a new car.

Misses Mary McLain, Mary Hadcock and Jewell Hulsey were the guests of the Misses Askins Sunday.

Willie Benson and family, and brother, Melvin, from near Sulphur Springs, are here visiting their cousin and family, Mrs. Alf Ellis.

FROM CADDO

St. Clair Homer left Wednesday for Dallas, where he has enlisted in the Naval Reserve.

Mrs. Paul Hancock is visiting relatives in Whitewright, Texas, this week.

Mrs. Ira Smizer returned to her home in Haskell Tuesday.

C. W. Banta, a merchant of Liberty Hill, was in Caddo this week.

A few blank applications for Choctaw payment were received at the local post office this week. The demand, however, far exceeded the supply. It is estimated that more than $300,000 will be paid out in Caddo trade territory.

Rev. Tatum was in town this week from his place in Caddo Hills, with a load of nice watermelons. This is the second load of melons to be marketed here this season.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald came in Thursday night from the fish hatchery to see "My Four Years in Germany" at the picture show.

Miss Jennine Manning visited her aunt, Mrs. O. R. Nicholson, in Durant last week.

The Methodist ladies had a "rummage sale" Saturday for the benefit of the church.

W. F. Dodd went to Oklahoma City Tuesday.

Mrs. Tony Goodman, daughter of

JENKINS DRY GOODS COMPANY

Invites You to attend Our Festival of Bargains the last week of Our Big July Clearance Sale.

We are clearing out the odds and ends from our new stock, which have accumulated through the past fifteen days of our sale.

Our Men's Department offers: Men's good Palm Beach, Mohair, and Kool Kloth Suits for $5.48

Mens Suits of Tropical Worsteds, splendid patterns, in dark or light colors; values to $15.00; priced this week for Clearance $8.95

Our Men's Suits of English Mohair, and all-wool Worsteds, designed and tailored by the best manufacturers in the country, are priced at $11.85, $11.85, $17.45

And you get $1.00 off these prices this week. (These are values up to $27.50.)

Big lot of Men's Shirts and Drawers, Balbriggan and Porosknit; worth 75c a garment; are priced this week at 35c

"STRAW HATS"

One big lot Men's Sailor Straw hats, and Leghorn Hats; value $3.50; have been priced at $2.48; go this week

Low Shoes for the Entire Family at Big Reductions

One big lot of Children's and Misses' Slippers priced this week at 95c
One big lot of Ladies' and Misses' Slippers, worth up to $2.50; price $1.15
One big lot of Ladies' high class Slippers and Pumps, worth up to $4.00; priced this week at $1.98
You can buy any Oxford Pump or Low Shoe in this stock for almost half price and less.

OUR PIECE GOODS

Department has still a well assorted stock of Staples which are priced extra. Assembled in one lot are Lawns which have been selling at 12 1/2c, 15c and 18c. Priced this week at 12 1/2c, 13c, 15c. The entire stock of Voiles, Organdies, and Lawns are reduced in price to the low prices of 12 1/2c, 13c, 15c. We have still quite a large stock of our high class Bleached and Brown Dotted. Priced at 12 1/2c. Buy your season's supply of Towels, Hosiery, Underwear, etc., while you can.

OUR READY-TO-WEAR SECTION

Has for your approval further reduced prices on every Summer Garment on hand. We have gone through the stock and made further reductions on all odds and ends. YOU KNOW YOU GET THE NEWEST THINGS AT THE NEW STORE. Help Us Keep Our New Store New—We Have No Old or Shelf-Worn Goods.

Mr. and Mrs. John Petty, of Caddo, health about three weeks ago. Funerary Tuesday morning at 3 at St. Peter's hospital. Mrs. Goodman lived Caddo Wednesday afternoon at 3, in Muskogee and came home in bading conducted by Rev. Herman Jones of Durant. Get our prices

Slightly Used Cars For Sale

Each One a Bargain

If you are in the market for a slightly used car should see the following before you buy. Every one of these cars are in first class condition—Come look them over.

- 1 Maxwell
1 Ford Tauring
2 Dodge Touring Cars
1 Studebaker
1 Cadillac
1 Chevrolet
1 Hupmobile "32"
1 Overland

We need the room—Show us the money and show you an exceptional bargain in every one of them.

Thompson Motor Cars

Second and Evergreen